September 1

Antioch Baptist – A Jesus-loving congregation in a needy community invites you to pray together with them in faith that God will show his light in the darkness, his hope in despair, and his people sow seeds of the receptive hearts for the glory of God. (Matthew 6:33; Mark 4:1-20, 26-30; John 4:35; 2 Corinthians 9:8)

September 2

Beulah Land Cowboy– Our Father in heaven, we are asking for your power that comes from a fresh filling by your Holy Spirit according to your Word. Call us! Empower us through our holy time in your Word, in prayer, in meditation, and in obedience to your divine call. Help us in our weakness to be as the apostles to live in the power of the risen Christ. (Acts 1:8; Ephesians 2:1-10; Romans 8:26-30)

September 3

Beulah Baptist Association – We pray thanks to God for our Beulah Baptist Association of thirty-eight churches in three counties. We pray God's wisdom, courage, strength, discernment, vision, and protection for our churches, for Marshall Key, our Associational Missions Strategist, and Stephanie Krivsky, Ministry Assistant. We are an association of churches who are bound together to accomplish more and better than we can accomplish alone. Each church is a body of Christ, ruled only by Jesus Christ. We work together in Christian fellowship to the glory of God!

September 4

Cottonwood Baptist– Abba Father, we pray for Family and Friend Day. We rejoice in those who have Christ as Lord and Savior and their growing in discipleship through their new believer's class. (John 15:5-11; 20:17; 1:11-12; 2 Peter 3:18; Acts 4:12; Romans 10:9-10; Philippians 2:9-11)

September 5

Crosswind Church– God, as a seeking, calling God, we pray your preparation both for the church and for this man to come to lead the church in their student ministry. May he lead in passion for you, Lord, and compassion for teens. Father may his family and Crosswind be a holy fit in pursuing magnifying your glory. (Deuteronomy 6:4-9; Ephesians 6:10-20; John 15:5-11)

September 6

Cypress Creek– Father, the God of creation, wisdom, power, and glory, we cry out to you to pour out on your children your wisdom and power, discernment, courage, and strength. Jesus, you gave us the Great Command to love you above all with our all as the most important endeavor of your church. Lord, turn us also to the Great Commission to make disciples. By your glory, Lord, and for our joy, let us follow you together as one body of Christ. (James 1:5-8; Mark 12:28-31; Matthew 28:16-20)

September 7

Fairview Baptist– O our God of salvation, whet our hunger and thirst for both ourselves and those around us to know and love you with all we are, so we can walk in your Word. May your light shine out of us into the darkness about us. May our fellowship flourish with the aroma of Jesus and the fruits of righteousness that would be attractive to those longing for Christ. (Isaiah 12:2; Matthew 5:6; 28:16-20; Luke 10:2; John 4:35; 1 Corinthians 3:6-9)

September 8

FBC–Obion– Father, we pray for this historic church and community. Prepare both the church and the man who will come to lead. Raise up those you are calling to be the body of Christ as a world missions center. (Ephesians 4:11-16; Acts 9; Mark 12:28-31; Luke 24:45-49)

September 9

FBC–Ridgely– Father, we join these brothers and sisters before your throne, partitioning grace, mercy, glory, holiness, and the presence of the risen Jesus Christ among his own. Touch lives to bring them from death to life, from darkness to light, and from despair to hope and joy and purpose. Moreover, we ask with them to prepare the church and the man you would have to be a good fit for this man, this church, and this community. (Mark 12:28-31; Matthew 28:16-20; Deuteronomy 6:4-9; Ephesians 3:14-21)

September 10

Johnson Grove– Father, we join with this band of believers who are crying to you to make sowers of seed, to be a mustard seed. Holy Spirit, speak into the lives of those who are your own; speak into the lives you would call to Jesus. Mesh our purposes that faithful witness would meet salvation, growing disciples, and a healthy church. (Mark 12:28-31; Matthew 28:16-20; 1 Corinthians 15:3-5; 1 Thessalonians 5:12-15)

September 11

FBC–Tiptonville– Father, we join this band of brothers and sisters in Christ. Lord, by your grace would you blow the wind of your Holy Spirit across Tiptonville and on from there such the culture of Tennessee and across the land would be changed for Jesus, so that all would know Jesus is Lord. May it begin October 26-29 and continue until the Lord is pleased. (2 Chronicles 7:14-18; Philippians 2:5-11; Revelation 3:20-22)

September 12

FBC–Union City– Father, grant our sister church their petition for your holy wisdom, unity, faithfulness, and growing in Christlikeness. May the Lord be glorified in everything that is accomplished in His name!
(2 Kings 22-23; Matthew 5:6; 6:33; Philippians 1:9-11)

September 13

Lakeview Baptist– Father, we join with Lakeview in their hunger and thirst for more of you and the spreading of your Kingdom. Great Shepherd, direct your sheep, feed your sheep, protect your sheep. May by their faithful witness you would produce more sheep. O Jesus! come) and extend your kingdom both in quantity and in quality for your glory and for our joy. (2 Corinthians 5:16-21; Mark 12:28-31; Matthew 28:16-20; John 4:35; 10:7-18)

September 14

Lake Road Baptist– Father, as you call us to serve you and others, we pray for workers in the church to serve unto you. May your Holy Spirit minister through your own that the body of Christ will function in building the Kingdom of God. Use your holy Word to shape fully functioning members for the boy of Christ. For your glory and for our joy, would our raise up members with hearts for missions: across the room, across the street, across the tracks, across the seas. O Lord, use us all as you will and where and when and how! (John 4:35; 15:11; Matthew 28:16-20; Mark 4:1-20; 26-34; 16:15; Luke 24:45-49; John 20:21; Acts 1:8)

September 15

Macedonia Baptist– Father, may our hearts mirror your heart for knowing and being known by you, to join you where you are at work in the world, to join the Holy Spirit using us to tell the story of Jesus' taking on human flesh, dying on the cross for our sins, his burial, rising on the third day, and at him at the right hand of the Father praying for us! Father I – alongside other believers- to live for you by the power that is mine because you died and live for me! (Mark 4:1-34; I Corinthians 3:6-6; John 20:19-22; Mark 12:28-31; Matthew 28:16-20; Acts 1:8)

September 16

McConnell Baptist– God of new beginnings, we join the chorus of prayer to participate with you in expanding your kingdom in both quantity and in quality-wide and deep. Astonish us with your "new thing" for your glory you will do among us. Draw us to love you with all we are. Fill us with your Holy Spirit to spread your gospel. Mature us with Christlikeness to make disciples who make disciples to your glory and for our joy. (Isaiah 43:19; Acts 2:42-47; Mark 12:28-31; Matthew 28:16-20; Philippians 1:9-11)

September 17

We are called to pray fervently for our government. We pray for our officials and the work they do at the local, state, and national levels. We pray God's protection and grace to provide wisdom for them to know what to do, courage to do the right, God-honoring thing, strength to accomplish the task all to the glory of God!

September 18

We pray for our schools, from prekindergarten to elementary to middle to high schools. Father, we cover in prayer students, families, staff, teachers, administrators. Working together we pray together to prepare students to flourish with truth, honor, strength, and integrity to the glory of God!

September 19

Mt. Moriah Baptist– O Father, may we live both individually and together as a church by your life in us and for your glory. Open our spiritual ears and hearts to hear your voice and your heart in your Word. Lord, work in and in me by your Holy Spirit, guiding me by your Word, so that the world may know that Jesus is Lord. (John 14:26; 20:21; Romans 12:1-8; I Corinthians 12; 14; Galatians 5:22-23; Ephesians 4:1-13; Hebrews 2:3-4; I Peter 4:10-11)

September 20

Mt. Pelia Baptist– O Lord, you are Holy, Holy, Holy and we are not. Show us your vision for our community and the world. May we take up your burden and passion for those we meet concerning their eternal relationship with Jesus. (Isaiah 6:1-13; Luke 24:45-49)

September 21

New Concord Baptist– Father, we praise your name. You led King David to lead music and worship in service to you. You have proven over and again that your purposes done your way for your glory in your time, they will never lack your supply. New Concord is praying for a pianist to help point us to Jesus. (2 Corinthians 9:8; Mark 12:28-31; Matthew 28:16-20; Nehemiah 8:10)

September 22

New Salem Baptist – Eternal God, you have shown throughout Scripture that you are the God who speaks to his people. Father, open our spiritual eyes and spiritual hearts to see and know when you are at work among us. Grant us the courage to adjust our hearts and actions to join you in what you are doing. Grow us in faith which delights to trusting God for his provision that redounds to his glory! (John 4:18-31; 15:5-11)

September 23

Pleasant Hill-Martin – Father, thank you that you delight to bless your people. Buildings are helpful for ministry. Now we are excited to focus on ministry to you, Lord, in worship, on ministry to believers through Christian nurture, and in ministry to those who are without Christ through witness, evangelism, and missions. Keep us from complacency in our comfort rather motivate us to grow in holiness with you in worship, to grow in discipleship in ministry to believers, and grow in sowing gospel seeds to those we meet. (John 15; Ephesians 4:1-16; Acts 1:8; 28:23-31)

September 24

Pleasant Hill-Rives– Father, you speak to your people. You make your will known. We pray for fifteen professions of faith who become disciples of the Lord Jesus. Raise up mission teams whose hearts are to build up the Kingdom of God. Would you bring together your Church with a clear vision of your cardinal purposes: worship to the living God, nurture to the body of Christ, and spreading the gospel through witness, evangelism, and missions. Lord, as we grow in delighting in you, provide the buildings necessary to carry out your purposes in and through your people for your glory and our joy. (Isaiah 6:1-13; Habakkuk 2:2-3; 1 Corinthians 12:12-14; Colossians 3:12-17)

September 25

Reelfoot Baptist – Father, here is a body of Christ that is crying out to you for a shepherd to come among them and lead in making disciples. There is a need in the community where there are many, especially among the young, are not following Jesus. We today kneel before you alongside them and call upon you to raise up from us laborers in the harvest that your church may magnify your name. (Mark 12:28-31; Matthew 28:16-20; Mark 4:1-23)

September 26

Second Baptist – Father, you created families. When we come to you through Jesus Christ, you place us in families called churches. We pray for our ministries to families. You, Lord, care for and call unto yourself those who with addictions. We pray alongside Second Baptist for the start of their new preschool and Hope Center. (Isaiah 33:19; Matthew 19:14; 2 Corinthians 5:17, 21)

September 27

Sunswept Baptist – Father, we pray with our brothers and sisters of Sunswept for the man to come to be their pastor. Would you make the preparations you are making to be clear both to him and to Sunswept. Would you make this a good fit for this pastor, the church and the community. Holy Spirit, call those who have been changed by Jesus and those whom you will call to hear your voice, see the glory of Jesus' life, death, burial, resurrection on the third day, his interceding for us at the right hand of the Father, and his victorious return. May you call us to make disciples who make disciples. (Mark 12:28-31; Matthew 28:16-20; John 15:1-11)

September 28

Troy FBC – Father, we join our sister church to celebrate the goodness of God. Pray for both the preparations before and the follow-up after. September 21 will be the celebration of the church's 96th Anniversary. Dr. Vann Kissell will be preaching. In addition the church is preparing for a new couples Sunday School class. Moreover, pray for a Men's Event, Man's Church with author Rick Burgess on October 5. May the Lord touch many hearts, putting on the way to growth in Christlikeness. The purpose in all of this is to magnify the Lord, so that West Tennessee and beyond may know that Jesus is Lord! (Deuteronomy 8:2; Psalm 105:5; Isaiah 43:19; Mark 21:28-31; Matthew 28:16-20; Ephesians 5:25-27)

September 29

Father, we pray for our local first responders, medical personnel, and businesses. These are the ones who keep our communities functioning with services, products, honesty, and a pride born from work well done to the glory of God.

September 30

Woodland Mills Baptist – Father, we join Woodland Mills for your guidance and wisdom in every ministry decision. Holy Spirit move among us for unity, love, and a spirit of service, leading us to grow stronger as a family of God. Reveal the open doors in our community to reach people with the gospel of Jesus. (Matthew 6:33; John 10:7-18)
